Previous Guest Comments

"So an evening at the Chefs Table. Wow, the food, the fantastic wines - All phenomenal! But even better with the company of the legendary Katie. What an evening!" - Richard & Francois, Cambridgeshire UK

The Ultimate Experience

We join Chef for coffee, a kitchen orientation, ingredient and menu briefing. Our minds now focused on the task at hand, we head to the winelands to tantalise our palates. Returning to savour a five- course food & wine pairing luncheon where we delve into the flavours and intricacies of our senses

The Exclusive Places

Chef's Tables are increasing in popularity and two of Fairy's favourites are at La Residence in Franschoek and at the Belmond Mount Nelson Hotel in the city. Imagine a space resplendent with dazzling chandeliers, black and white Victorian tiles and the bustling sounds of a busy kitchen.

The Wine & The Food

Each dish is prepared in front of you while the chef talks you through the freshest ingredients, cooking techniques and flavours. You're encouraged to join in and marvel, every plate is bursting with colour and complex layers of taste. Incredible wines are paired to every course.
